

Martin Luther King Jr.

Martin Luther King was an American Baptist Minister and an activist. He was the leader of the American civil rights movement. King participated and led marches for black people in America to be able to vote and have equal rights.

